A new Vocational study option at Public FET Colleges

Public FET Colleges now offer a new, exciting, modern and relevant range of vocational programmes known as the National Certificate (Vocational). These vocational programmes are high skills, high quality and high knowledge programmes introduced at FET Colleges nationally in 2007 and are intended to directly respond to the priority skills demands of the modern economy.

What is the National Certificate (Hospitality) Qualification?

The National Certificate (Hospitality) is a new qualification at each of Levels 2, 3 and 4 of the NQF. This qualification is designed to provide both the theory and practice of Hospitality. The practical component of study may be offered in a real workplace environment or in a simulated experience workplace environment. It will provide students with an opportunity to experience work situations during the period of study.

What are the minimum entry requirements to the qualification?

For entry into the National Certificate (Hospitality) at NQF Level 2, you require:

- A year end school report for Grade 9 or higher; or
- An NQF Level 1 qualification; or
- An approved bridging programme designed for the specific purpose to access NQF Level 2; or
- A Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) assessment to meet the basic requirements for access to NQF Level 2.

How long is the Qualification?

The National Certificate (Hospitality) qualification is a full year programme at each of the NQF levels of study.

A student is issued with a certificate on the successful completion of each level of study, that is Level 2, Level 3 and Level 4.

Which subjects make up a National Certificate (Hospitality)?
